

CHECK OUT THESE RESOURCES FOR MORE INFORMATION AND GUIDANCE ON FOOD-SAVING PRACTICES.

● Reducing and Preventing Wasted Food

National Restaurant Association's Best Practices Guide

EPA Tools for Assessing Wasted Food

Save the Food Campaign

LeanPath's 20 Food Waste Cutting Tips

NRDC's Food Waste Reduction Strategies

● Donate Surplus Food

Here are some resources that can coordinate pickup and delivery, work with you to address other logistical questions, and even provide information on tax incentives:

One Generation Away

Food Donation Connection

The Nashville Food Project

The following links contain information that may help you donate surplus food:

Metro Public Health Department Guidelines for Donating Prepared Food

Metro Public Health Department and Nashville Food Waste Initiative Brochure on Food Donation

Donor's Guide to Federal Tax Incentives

Fact Sheet on Liability Protections

● Recycle Food Scraps

The following companies offer compost pick-up services in Nashville and can work with you to establish a composting system that works for you:

Compost Company

Compost Nashville

Earth Savers

Eternal Returns

Also, DAR PRO Solutions provides cooking oil pickup in Nashville.